

Item P14-2436

Suspension Trauma Relief Strap

Suspension trauma relief strap is designed to be used with a full body harness and helps relieve the discomfort of prolonged suspension after a fall arrest. The two-piece design provide for quick and easy adjustment to fit users of all size, and is transferable from one harness to the next.

Item	Description	Attributes
14-2436	Suspension Trauma Relief Strap	